

The Elie Wiesel Foundation PRIZE IN ETHICS 2023 Essay Contest Information & Guidelines

Awards:

- ♦ First Prize - $10,000
- ♦ Second Prize - $5,000
- ♦ Third Prize - $3,000
- ♦ Two Honorable Mentions - $1,000

Eligibility:

- ♦ Registered undergraduate full-time Juniors or Seniors at accredited four-year colleges or universities in the United States during the Fall 2022 Semester.

Suggested Essay Topics:

What challenges awaken your conscience?

Is it the conflicts in American society? An international crisis? Maybe a difficult choice you face or a hard decision you had to make?

Engage us. Enlighten us. Explore the ethics of any problem, question, or issue, whether close to home or in the world at large. We are eager to learn from you.

What the Readers Look For:

- ♦ Clear articulation and genuine grappling with an ethical dilemma.
- ♦ Adherence to guidelines and carefully proofread essays.
- ♦ Observation of rules for Standard English usage (grammar, punctuation, mechanics) in writing.
- ♦ Thoroughly thought-out, tightly focused essays.
- ♦ Originality and imagination.
- ♦ Eloquence of writing style.
- ♦ Intensity and unity in the essay.

Essays will be judged on:

- The quality of the writing
- The clarity of the ethical problem or issue
- The depth of the essay's ethical analysis – including, for example, reflections on matters of right and wrong, justice and injustice, and the implications of those reflections for society
